FOR THE RECORD*

Venezuela-OAS-Cuba: Venezuela has dropped its request for a special OAS Council meeting to vote on a resolution that would allow member nations to apply existing OAS sanctions against Cuba as they saw fit. It will probably bring the resolution up again when it believes there are 12 votes--a simple majority--for it. []

Sweden - North Vietnam: Stockholm last week signed a new agreement providing Hanoi its first post - cease-fire development aid from the West. The $70-million package is Sweden's largest one-time grant to any country. []

GATT: A West German official has cautioned that the EC is unlikely to compensate the US for any reduction in agricultural exports resulting from the EC's enlargement. The official also said that the EC will be sticky on agriculture in the preparatory stages of the multilateral trade talks, although some liberalization might be negotiated later in the talks. []
